

Expressionism

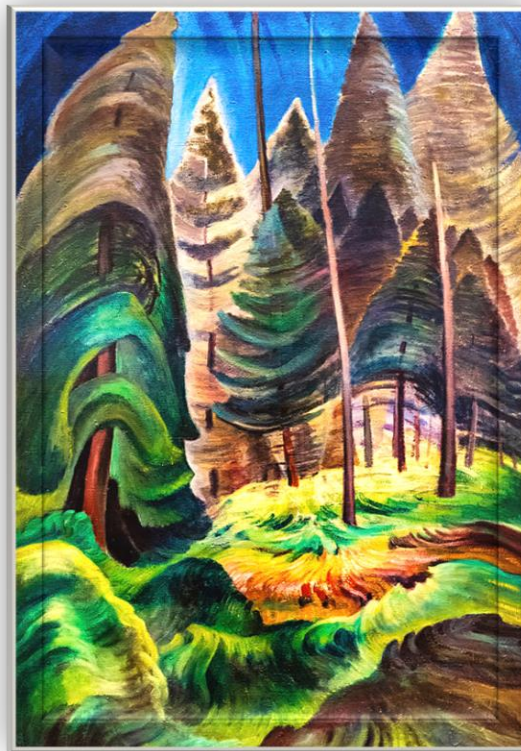

Art with Feeling

1890 – 1950

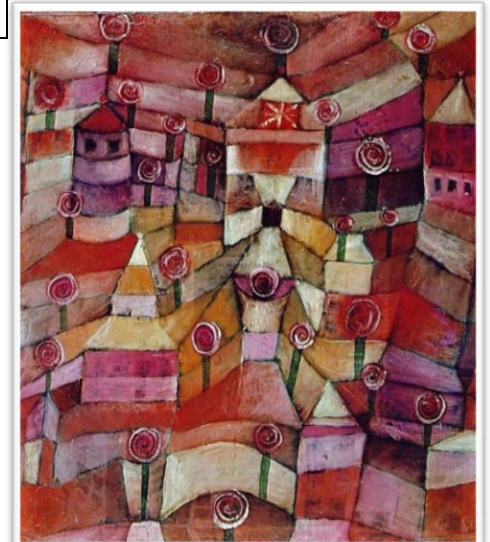

In a time filled with wars, artists began to create with their emotions, imaginations and dreams. They altered reality to portray what they wanted to express.

Separation
Edvard Munch 1896

A Rushing Sea of Undergrowth
Emily Carr 1935

The Rose Garden
Paul Klee 1920

Hour Between Wolf and Dog
Marc Chagall 1938

Activities:

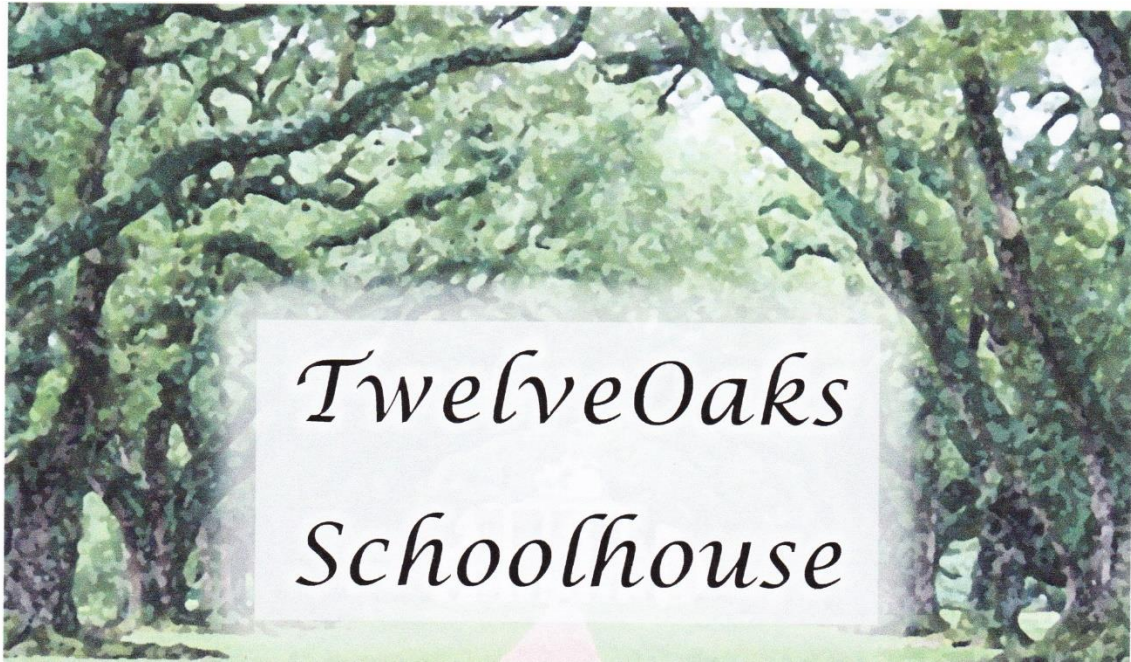

1. Recreate Edvard Munch's "The Scream" with a free download here - Edvard Munch The Scream Painting for Kids - printable included! - Messy Little Monster

2. Franz Marc was an Expressionist artist that loved animals and loved bright colors. Study the paintings below of Marc's favorite animal painted in his favorite color. Then paint your favorite animal in your favorite color.

3. Create art to music. Play a song and try and paint/ draw, etc. what the music feels like. What color represents the beat? What shapes represent the melody? Express in your artwork what the music says to you.

Art Appreciation – Expressionism

Thank you for downloading the Expressionism Study Guide. All of the curriculum on my website is intended for home use. There are Amazon Affiliated links on my site of any books or supplies I mention. If you decide to buy any of them, please use the links on my website. I take no credit for most of the images I use. It's either on-line clip art or pictures that I may or may not modify, or drawings from my son, Sky Bott. He asks that I mention his YouTube channel, MrSkyPanda. It's a family friendly channel. I'm especially proud of the CandyWorld Episodes.
